Mrs Nellie Fleming
My Dear loving Wife
will Drop you a line as I am all Right considering ever thing I have got something wrong with my side and back but nothing serious it will be all right in a few days it is some kind of a breaking out. Well MaMa how are you feeling by this time I hope fine and dandy god I wish I was there with you these old long and lonesome days I know I would feel like living any way. Honey we are back for a while I dont know how long we are going to stay but I hope quiet a while for it gets pretty tough some times but I

I
dont think this old war will last much longer I dont hardley see how it can do you the way the papers are Reading. Babby it has been some time since I have wrote to you but believe me babby I have been a awful bussey man and havent had time to think straight have been on the go for quiet awhile.
There is a Y. M. C. A coming in here to day I think and if it does I will send you some money. I bought me a new cap and a sweater yesterday honey that was Jessie Harwood that boarded at Vanfleets I dont know Edd unless it is Jessies brother I forgot his name he worked for me at the lucky Jack honey I got your pictures all right it is pretty good of you both especially it looks good to me over here I would give my life just to see you once more for I am the loneliest man in all the world I know

 your allotment yet or that liberty bond or insurance papers. Either one it looks like they could get that straight some time but it seems like
 nothing. have you got any trunk yet honey I got a letter from Minnie and she sent me some of Charley's pictures they are sure
 good of him well honey

I have wrote about all I can think of right now I am freezing half to death sitting here writing with out any fire so I will try and write more next time you know I send all my love and ever thing else in world that is good with a million hugs and kisses I remain for ever your loving Husband
